

Wildlife in my Backyard

Sort the cards so that the wildlife have the habitats they need to survive and thrive in your backyard

Exercise created by Rebbekah Lamont,

Card design by Lesley Thomas for Living Smart, February 2012

Frogs

Motor-bike Frog

Pobblebonk

Skinks

Fence Skink

Living smart
creating sustainable communities

Brush-Tail Possums

Living smart
creating sustainable communities

Spiders

St Andrew's Cross Spider

Jumping Spider

Living smart
creating sustainable communities

Insects

Bandicoots

Southern Brown Bandicoot or Quenda

Bats

Chocolate Wattled Bat (av weight: 9 grams)

Honeyeaters

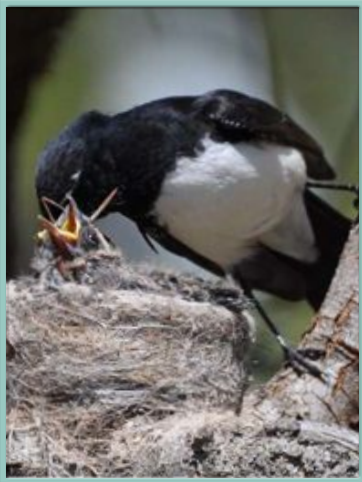

New Holland Honeyeater

Cockatoos

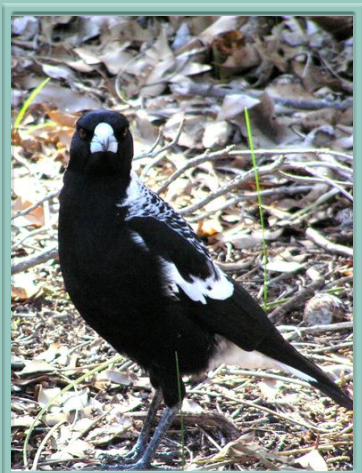

Forest Red-Tailed Cockatoo

Willy Wag-tails

Magpies

Trees

Shrubs

Leaf litter/Mulch

Walls and fences

Exfoliating bark (peeling off the tree)

Pond with plants and sloped sides

Ground-covers

Native grasses/seeds

Tree hollows or nest boxes

Living smart Trees/logs with fissured bark

creating sustainable communities

Living smart
creating sustainable communities

Stones or rocks

Living smart
creating sustainable communities

Twigs

Shady areas

Local nut-bearing plants

Local nectar-bearing flowers

Spider webs

Grass-trees

Bird baths

